VETERANS WELCOMED
BY FLORIDA GOVERNOR

Park Trammell Delivers Fervent Address at Opening of Jacksonville Reunion

(By Associated Press.)

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 4.—United Confederate Veterans and allied organizations here today for the annual reunion here, were extended a warm welcome today by Governor Park Trammell in a speech at the veterans' first official meeting.

"Veterans and Friends," said Governor Trammell, "are the legal owners of the Stars and Stripes and are ever ready to maintain the banner of our republic. Tradition is in your hearts, and in the search of progress for the uplifting the greatest country on the globe we know no north, no south, no east, west, but are a reunited people under one flag, with a common purpose and common destiny. The bitterness of yesterday, engendered by the civil strife is but a memory—and we now esteem respect and appreciate our brothers the north as our friends, our neighbors and fellow Americans.

We honor you, Jacksonville, and the state of Florida have extended manifestations of friendship and welcome them as friends.

We honor you, veterans, not only because of the service in defense of our land, but as well for your loyalty and devotion to the principles of back to life, prosperity and influence in our southland.

Upon the nation's hosts of its soldiers and brave deeds, but no nation has more justly earned the title of "Land of the brave" than the American republic. Today as war is impending in the far south land, we are called upon to stand at white heat, within the breasts of our people, and we are glad to call our men would gladly rally to the flag and gallant, undaunted, face death.

Veterans, sons and daughters of its sons, and the people of the southland, we honor you for your gallant spirit and good fellowship. May your stay be full of pleasure and may it be a pleasant surprise to you. We trust your visit to the land of Flori-

Since this is not Fancy but FACT, Prepare Yourself for A Most Extraordinary Announcement of Embroideries

$5 to $12.50 Lovely New Flouncings

"COME to the checkroom, quick," came the summons over the phone. So the writer hung up the receiver and hurried downstairs. He found an excited lace buyer reveling in boxes of new embroideries.

"Here," she said, throwing out an exquisite embroidery flouncing; "here is an identical pattern we had earlier at $9 a yard; this Baby Irish flouncing was $10; that handsome Flit piece was $12.50. And we are to sell them all at $2.19! Did you ever see such values! Aren't they just dear? Won't people clamor for them?"

Good women of Atlanta, the lace buyer's enthusiasm is justified. In the writer's experience of fifteen years he has never seen such values. If you will look at the window display; if you will handle the embroideries at the counter; if you will but see these dreams of loveliness; you will be as delighted as we.

—But down to sober business. In cold detail we put down these facts:

- The flouncings are 27 and 45 inches wide.
- The materials are chiefly white in crepes, voiles, glass cloth, linens and mulls.
- The patterns are Baby Irish, Tenerife, Flat Venice, Shadow and Flit.
- Most of them are all white; some are in colors.
- Some few novelties are shown; flouncings with net ruffle; hand loom edges, etc.
- Not a yard is worth under $5; some are worth $10 and $12.50; the average price is easily $7.50. Choice $2.19.

For Our 47th Birthday Greetings We Hand Out Our Regular $1 Kid Gloves at 79c

This is the glove we retail steadily over our counters at $1. It is made of selected French lambskin; perfectly cut and finished. Black, white and tan; black with white stitching; white with black.

CONFIDENT BOND ISSUE WILL CARRY NEXT TIME

Leaders of Campaign for Greater Hospital Encouraged
With Showing of Voters

While the leaders in the Grady bond campaign naturally regret the failure of the bonds to carry, at the same time they feel heartily encouraged by the large vote that was polled and by the fact that an overwhelming majority of those voters were favorable to the issue.

They consider that the campaign served the good purpose of educating the public to the needs of Grady hospital and thereby sowed seed that will bear fruit whenever the voters are again asked to authorize a bond issue to enlarge and rebuild this great institution which does so much for suffering humanity.

Frank E. Allen, chairman of the general bond campaign committee, said Wednesday morning:

"We won by losing. The vote really was better than I expected, considering the short time we had for educating the people as to the hospital's needs. The law requiring bonds to be authorized by two-thirds of the entire registration is a handicap on Atlanta and every other city in the state, and should be changed. It would be sufficient to require a two-thirds majority of those voting. With the law as it now stands, the result of a bond election is controlled by those who are indifferent combined with those who are out of the city and those who have died since the registration list became effective. Take the case, in this election, of the late Judge T. P. Westmoreland. The last public appearance he made was at a meeting of the Grady bond committee. Then he was taken ill and died. Had he lived, his vote would have been among the first to be cast at his precinct for Grady bonds. But his vote counted against the bonds, as much as if he had lived and voted against them. Take the case of my partner, Mr. Feller. He was out of town yesterday on business which he was obliged to attend to. If he had been here he would have taken great pleasure in voting for the bonds. But his vote counted against them. Then there was the indifferent voter, who staid away because he did not feel enough interest even to go and vote against the bonds. His vote counted against them just the same."

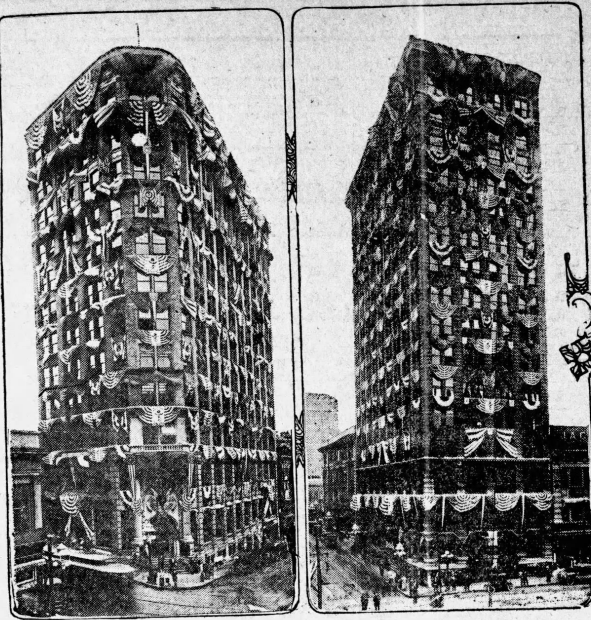

"So, I say we are handicapped by the law as it now stands. I realize that it is a constitutional provision and cannot be changed without a vote of the people of the state, but I believe if a constitutional amendment were submitted they would ratify it."

R. L. Foreman, another of the leaders in the bond campaign, was similarly optimistic. He said:

"The bonds did not fail because the people are opposed to them, but because not quite a sufficient number of people were aroused to the importance of the state's needs and because some of those who were alive thought that the matter could not quite see where $750,000 is needed. Both of these things could have been overcome with a little more time to make our campaign of education. However, I am not discouraged. An overwhelming majority of the people showed that they have a ready hospital in their minds and want it enlarged and improved. The more they think about the hospital, the more they will appreciate the fact that it should be made a great municipal hospital commensurate with Atlanta's present size and prospective growth. And the next time it is proposed to issue Grady bonds I am sure that they will authorize the issue. One of the most encouraging features of the campaign was that so many people joined in support of the movement right from the start, showing that our people take an interest in their municipal affairs and are alive to the needs of the various departments."

Mr. W. Harris Dead
EASTMAN, Ga., May 6.—Mr. W. Harris, a prominent merchant of Eastman, died at his home here Monday night at 10:45 o'clock. He was 58 years of age. He is survived by a wife and five children.

FLAGS FLYING FOR SHRINERS ALREADY

Downtown Atlanta is beginning to put on the gala raiment which will bedeck its every brick and stone next week in honor of the Shrine convention. Here are shown the Atlanta National bank building, at the left, and the Fourth National bank building, at the right, brave with red, white and blue and orange, green and red bunting, fluttering from every window and corner from the street to the summit. Thousands of dollars will be expended to make Atlanta a carnival city as far as decorations go.

ANNUAL MOTHERS' DAY PROCLAMATION ISSUED

Governor Slaton Gives Statement Settling Date for Sunday, May 10

In accordance with the time-honored custom, Governor Slaton Tuesday morning issued the annual "mother's day" proclamation, setting Sunday, May 10, as the date.

The proclamation follows:

State of Georgia,
Executive Department
May 5, 1914.
There is one obligation which we can never hope to pay. That is the debt we owe to the mothers who bore us. The price they freely gave that we might live, their tender nurture of our infancy and watchful guardianship of our childhood and later years passes the power of thoughts to measure or of words to express. But though we cannot hope to repay, we can, at least, reverse. It is fitting then that we should set apart one day in the year to offer our vows at the holy altar of Motherhood.

Therefore, I, John M. Slaton, governor of the state of Georgia, do hereby designate Sunday, May 10, 1914, to be observed as MOTHERS' DAY.

Let each of us, who is blessed with a living mother, testify to her on that day by written or spoken word or by some other appropriate token his tender appreciation of her love and care; let us lay a garland on the graves of the mothers who are gone as an offering of affectionate remembrance; and let us each wear the white flower as an emblem of the singleness, the purity and selflessness of Mother's devotion.

(Signed) JOHN M. SLATON,
By the governor,
(Signed) T. B. CONNER,
Executive Secretary.

SULPHUR FOR ECZEMA

APPLIED LIKE COLD CREAM IT STOPS ITCHING
AND DRIES SKIN ERUPTIONS RIGHT UP

With the first application of bold sulphur cream and apply it to the irritated, inflamed skin, the same as you would any cold cream. For many years this soothing, healing sulphur has occupied a secure position in the treatment of cutaneous affections by reason of its parasite-destructing property. It is not only parasiticidal, but also antipruritic, antiseptic and remarkably healing in all irritable and inflammatory conditions of the skin. While not always establishing a permanent cure it never fails to instantly subside the irritation and heal the eczema right up and it is often years later before any eruption again appears on the skin.

COUNTERFEITER DIES IN ATLANTA FEDERAL PRISON

Vincenzo Giglio, Member of Lupo the Wolf Gang, Succumbs at Supper Table

Vincenzo Giglio, thirty-four years of age, a member of the famous Lupo the Wolf gang of counterfeiters, died suddenly at the federal prison yesterday afternoon. Heart failure was the cause. Giglio, who was apparently in the very best of health, had taken a seat at the supper table when, without warning, he slipped from his chair to the floor and died almost before his companions could reach him.

Compensative little is known of the man at the prison. He was sent from New York, his home state, to serve a fourteen-year term together with five other members of the noted band of counterfeiters headed by Lupo the Wolf, who is himself serving a term in the prison. Of the four years he has served, Giglio had served a little more than four.

The body has been turned over to Harry G. Folsom, undertaker, to be shipped to New York City, the dead man's home.

MAKING EAST POINT A REAL SPOTLESS TOWN

Leading Citizens Whitewash
Telegraph Poles; Others
Make Dirt Disappear

Wednesday was "clean-up day" in East Point and men, women and children went to work with enthusiasm to clear away dirt and debris. The leading men of the town were put to work whitewashing telegraph poles and trees, pruning shrubs and trees and cutting grass along the main street, while a club women of the little city, under whose auspices the clean-up movement was held, swept and garbaged and made things spick and span wherever they could.

In the afternoon, when school was out, the children got busy picking up trash and papers and doing whatever else they could to aid.

As a reward of merit the men were invited to a dinner which was given by the women in one of the downtown stores, and many good things to eat were served.

HENSON'S AUTOMOBILE
STOLEN AT BALL GAME

C. A. Henson, whose place of business is at 45-48 South Broadway street, has lost the assistance of the police in locating his four-passenger Marmon car, which was stolen Tuesday afternoon while he was attending the baseball game.

Mr. Henson has received no trace of the car since it disappeared.

The car tag was No. 524 Georgia and the owner's initials, C. A. H., were on both doors.

SOUTHERN YALE CLUBS TO HONOR DEAN JONES

In honor of Hon. Frederick S. Jones, dean of Yale college, the Associated Southern Yale clubs will hold a reception Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at the University club.

Dean Jones is coming to Atlanta to attend the second annual meeting of the Associated Southern Yale clubs May 9 and 10. The members of the Yale Alumni association and their wives will also be in the receiving party.

James J. Hagan, is chairman of the executive committee of the association; the other members are J. T. Hardisty, A. E. Thornton, J. D. Palmer, Thomas W. Connally, Rev. Frank R. Shipman and I. S. Hopkins.

When Week-Old News Went Out of Favor, Day-Old News Was Doomed, Too!

It seems a long time ago when we were content to wait a week to learn the news of the neighborhood and of the rest of the world. But it was not so long ago--and the weekly newspaper still has its sphere of usefulness.

The newspaper of morning issue was a great stride in advance of the old-fashioned weekly--for it printed today the news of yesterday.

Of course the advent of the morning newspaper meant, in due course, the appearance of the evening newspaper, whose organization and equipment should enable it to print the day's news the same day--for the benefit of those who do not like to wait until tomorrow to learn what has been going on in the world today.

Advertising has kept step with the news. Being a specialized form of news, advertising nowadays is TIME-LY, giving publicity to every selling event in the stores which could possibly appeal to the self-interest of the reader.

SHERIFF MANGUM THANKS PEOPLE FOR THEIR HELP

Deputies Also Express Their Appreciation for Aiding in Their Elections

Sheriff C. W. Mangum and members of his force of deputies have requested that the Journal express to the people of Fulton county their deep appreciation of the support they received in the primary Tuesday.

The sheriff left the city Wednesday to attend the Confederate Veterans' reunion in Jacksonville, but before leaving said:

"I wish to express my most heartfelt thanks for the support accorded us in the election yesterday. We feel that this support is an indorsement of the service we have attempted to render in the past and we pledge ourselves to prove our appreciation by the same attention to duty that has won for us this victory."

J. H. Owen, Mr. Mangum's chief deputy, also expressed deep appreciation of the support of his friends. "I would like to thank my friends in College Park, where I live, especially," he said. "They gave us better than a 3 to 1 vote and I feel that this is an indorsement not only of Mr. Mangum's administration of the county business, but of my own humble efforts."

Deputy Plummer Minor is another who spoke feelingly of his gratification at the result of the primary. "We feel," he said, "that the votes of our thousands of supporters show their appreciation of our efforts in attempting to render efficient service and we wish to assure them that it shall ever be our aim in the future to prove to them that their faith in us has not been misplaced. We shall attempt to make them more certain by the service we shall render that they made no mistake in again honoring us with their confidence and support."

ferred to a select committee to report what should be done as the case now stands.

During the four-year period now ended, it was pointed out, the increase in membership was 17,127. The total income from the church publishing house at Nashville, Tenn., Dallas, Tex., and Richmond, Va., was $116,768.87.

In educational fields, the statistics showed there are 87 schools as compared to 102 in 1910, but showing an increase in value of $1,000,000 and an increase of $1,235,121 in expenditures.

It was stated that these figures, compiled by the secretaries, included Vanderbilt university, but don't include the Southern Baptist university at Dallas, now in course of building. The enrollment in the schools of the church was 12,818 compared to 11,643 in 1910.

MISSION WORK. In discussing the question of missions the bishops pointed out that the opening of the Panama canal brings the Orient to our doors and creates all new and speedier lines of communication with other nations in the western hemisphere.

Even the altered conditions of the countries into which we have undertaken to carry the message of salvation, notwithstanding their distracting and distracting agencies at present, foreshadow to us that great spiritual doors have been opened such as never before confronted us.

"The general conference of 1910 reorganized the missionary department of the church, utilizing the resources known as the board of missions, the Woman's Foreign Missionary society and the Woman's Home Mission society. Under the new system the quadrennium now closing has been necessarily one of readjustment of plans and reconstruction of policies. The report of the board of missions, as now constituted, including the reports of its several departments, will be laid before the conference later."

Attention was paid to so-called schemes for social betterment, which the address declared there are many who would have the church "abandon her high calling in Jesus Christ and give herself exclusively to all sorts of pretentious programs for 'social betterment,' 'improved environment,' and the like. They confuse her to rely on agencies rather than upon regeneration by the Holy Ghost."

Birmingham Is Facing "Blue Law" Sunday in War on Sabbath Movies

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 6.—Birmingham faces the prospect of a real blue law Sunday, beginning next week unless some compromise is reached by the city council.

The sale of church property by the trustees of the city, which was referred to as "open to serious objection," the bishops declared.

In connection with "methods of procedure" in the administration of discipline, the bishops declared:

"We regard it as very unfortunate when the methods and principles of the common law are brought into our Methodist procedure in matters of discipline, leading as it does to confusion and even worse results. We earnestly recommend that such changes in our law be made as will do away with all needless technicalities and as nearly as may be done by legislation, let processes be adopted as will make it may for essential purposes to be done, and when done allowed to stand."

NO NEW BISHOPS. That no new bishop will be elected at the present general conference was indicated when the address declared:

"Without increasing the present number of bishops, all reasonable demands of the church may be met, the lack of service of any who may be provisionally denied being supplanted by others without serious inconvenience."

In presiding over the conference Bishop A. W. Wilson used a gavel sent by Mrs. Rogers, daughter of the late Bishop Palmer, made from wood of the bishop's favorite cedar tree.

Bishop W. E. Washburn, of Los Angeles, read the opening hymn, "Love Me, yet Live" and the opening prayer was offered by Bishop W. B. Murrah, of Jackson, Miss. Bishops Collins Denney, of Richmond, and John C. Kilgo, of Durham, N. C., read the scriptural lessons. Bishop J. M. McCoy and Dr. J. H. McCallin, of the North Texas conference, also participated in the service.

The roll call showed more than 250 out of 255 accredited delegates in attendance.

sent me up in a gumboot. It was a wet little tub and a rough passage. For two days I didn't get a thing. I still feel weak."

Mr. O'Shaughnessy enthusiastically declared that he was glad to get back to the states after nearly two years' absence. He took charge at Mexico City in 1912 and his wife and the little boy have been with him all that time. "It's a hard climate down there," said Mr. O'Shaughnessy. "But I like Mexico."

think it's fine. The altitude is so high there, that you don't feel very energetic. Just think of a place where water boils at 110 and 112 degrees! But there's lots of fun. Mexicans do a great many other things besides bull fighting. We don't want to miss it, you see," said O'Shaughnessy, as he said good-by. "I'm mighty anxious to get to Washington. Send me one of those pictures, will you? And a paper, too. Care of the state department. That'll get me." And with that he was waving aboard. The last thing visible was a smudge of dusty heel as his only boots vanished up the steps.

LARGE ESTATE IS LEFT TO WIFE AND DAUGHTER

NEW YORK, May 6.—Herman Franch, of Cleveland, Ohio, for many years chief chemist of the Standard Oil company, who died in Paris May 1, divided his estate of at least $100,000 between his wife and daughter, Mrs. Henry Devereux Whiton, of Hewitt, L. I., leaving his son, George H. Franch, of Sydney, Australia, only the income from a trust fund of $50,000. The will was filed for probate here yesterday. Father and son had lived apart for many years. Should a contest of the will be brought, the father provided that the contestant should not share in the estate.

MANY STORES TO CLOSEDAY OF SHRINERS' PARADE

Beaumont Davison Starts Movement for Closing on Whitehall and Peachtree

As a result of a movement begun by Beaumont Davison, of Davison-Paxon-Stokes company, the big retail stores on Whitehall street will be closed during the Shriners' parade next Tuesday morning. It is probable, too, that the Peachtree street stores will also close their doors.

Mr. Davison took up the matter Wednesday morning and in less than thirty minutes heads of the big retail stores on Whitehall signed an agreement not to open their stores on the day of the parade until 1 o'clock. At noon Tuesday, Mr. Davison had not been in touch with the Peachtree merchants, but it is understood that they will probably follow the example set them by their Whitehall street neighbors.

In speaking of the matter, Mr. Davison pointed out that the parade is scheduled to form at 7:30 o'clock and will move promptly at 8:30. This, Mr. Davison points out, will preclude the possibility of the stores doing any business before the parade begins, and the parade itself will be sufficient, he feels certain, to sustain business while in progress. The schools of the city, he points out, will be closed in honor of the occasion and he feels that consideration of the visiting Shriners as well as the employees in the various stores warrants their being closed under the parade when business is concluded.

Every person approached on the subject gave the movement his hearty approval and expressed his pleasure at cooperating in the movement.

Resident Davison-Paxon-Stokes company, the firms which have agreed to close are:

Allyn & Co., Keely company, J. M. High company, Chamberlain-Johnson, Dufosse company, M. Rich & Brown, company, Eugene V. Harlow, Stair & Seale, Fred S. Stewart, George Moore Clothing company, J. E. Newman & Sons, company, Blaesman Bros., Carlton Shoe and Clothing company, J. H. Leggett company, Hyck Bros. company and Davin & Freeman.

THEATERS

(Criticism of initial performance at the local theaters are written by members of the Journal staff. All other material is furnished by the theater management.)

The Forsyth's big bill of features has got every one headed toward the theater twice daily. It is undoubtedly the greatest bill, and perhaps the best offering seen in that house this season. The advance sale started with a rush and immediately after the matinee on Monday, when that tremendous gathering of friends just what a big show, "It was."

The headline, "The Trained Nurses' Wins," Clark and Bergman are featured and those awfully pretty trained nurses, rolling out from the roof of a sanitarium in New York make the audience almost wild with excitement. It is the mere portion, in which the audience is treated to a most attractive femininity. The stage setting is elaborate and the costumes are very pretty, especially the last number, the wedding.

This act, however, is just one part of the show—their is Milt Collins, who just makes you feel, well like hallelujahs all through his number. He tells you all about snoring, babies, the Mexicans, Roosevelt, and most anything else he happens to think of.

The Five Musical Gormans, three extremely pretty young ladies, and two young gentlemen, make up the best musical act ever heard here. Miss Kathryn Gorman is one of the foremost cornetists in the country.

It is a most commendable feature of the time that makes you feel like whether you want to or not, to see the show. The closing feature, show their true worth and value by holding the audience in their seats until the very last minute, and two other good acts complete this most enjoyable and entertaining event.

Next week, Shriners' bill at the Forsyth will be headed by Nat Willis.

It isn't often that a manager of a theatrical company can appear behind the footlights, but William Wade Scott, who handles the business end of the Lucille LaVerne company at the Lyric, did so last night. He was the first to "The Hair to the Hoar" call for a "one act comedy," "The Hair to the Hoar," and Mr. Scott was thanked in full for the cast. And of course, the show they gave him the villain's role. He received a hearty round of applause from the gallery and hisses to a villain meant applause, so Mr. Scott thinks he "got."

"The Hair to the Hoar" is giving the best show presented thus far. The bill of five acts is almost entirely of a comedy nature and the result should prove a big laughing show.

WANTS OFFICE BUILDINGS

LIGHTED FOR SHRINERS

Mayor Asks Owners of Downtown Structures to Illuminate for Week

Mayor Woodward has called on the owners of office buildings, stores, etc., in the downtown sections of Atlanta to keep all their lights burning during the week when the Shriners are here next week.

"Our greatest pride are our office buildings," said the mayor. "The Shriners will see them in the daytime, of course, but their attention ought to be attracted to the buildings at night as well as in the day, and the best way to do this is by burning our lights."

One imaginative fire sight than for every room in every office building, hotel, store and other structure in the downtown section to be lighted up.

"I don't have no formal statement on the subject, but I would be glad if the newspapers would simply make the suggestion, for me, to the owners of the buildings. I am confident they will heed to take it up, if not already planning something of the kind."

"Let's have all our lights burning every night while the Shriners are here, until midnight at least."

THURSDAY IS TAG DAY FOR SHELTERING ARMS

Members of Society Expect Generous Donations for Benefit of Little Folk

Thursday will be Tag day, the day when all good Atlantans will have opportunity to give of their plenty that the children of the day nurseries may benefit by their generosity.

The Sheltering Arms society, of which Mrs. W. S. Elkin is president, is directing the Tag day plans, and the members of the society expect to place tag on thousands of men and women Thursday. Last year the donations ranged from 1 cent to $100, and this year the society hopes to do even better than it did last year.

When one considers that for 50 cents one may ensure the maintenance of one child at the nursery for one week, the donation seems small enough. During that week the child receives two meals a day, is given medical attention if necessary and is kept clean and happy.

For 2 cents one child can be kept in the nursery kindergarten for one week. Headquarters on Tag day will be in the Southern railroad ticket office on the viaduct. Mrs. Elkin will be there from 9 o'clock to give out tags and books and information.

There Is a Realm in This Store Where His Majesty--The Baby--Rules Supreme

Our Infants' Wear Section

The largest and most complete Infants' Wear Department in the South--NONE excelled.

A place where every effort, every energy, every thought of skilled buyers is turned intelligently (from years of experience) to providing for every need of infants, and babies up to two years of age.

We are proud of this department, of the reputation it has won with mothers who have depended upon us to provide their babies' wardrobes.

Infants' Wardrobes are a specialty with us. There is no part of all our business which receives more special care than this particular feature of merchandising.

Those who frequent the store know just how interesting is this prize section--and are thoroughly familiar with the various features which mean SPLENDID PREPARATION AT ALL TIMES. And even those who are not interested in the buying of infants' clothes cannot help stopping to inspect and admire the displays in the LITTLE FRENCH ROOM, where beautiful, imported, handmade garments are shown.

There is everything here that one could ask--from a Teething Band to the very finest, imported, Cap and Coat, wrappers, bibs, exquisite French handmade things, simple or elaborate--besides wearing apparel there are accessories for baby beds and carriages--blankets, sheets, cases, carriage robes, pillow slips, and a delightful display of artistic hand-painted novelties for gifts to babies you know and love.

And--best of all--daintiness and good taste characterize every garment and article. Here are a few suggestions from this immense stock--and some articles at

The stars incline, but do not compel.
HOROSCOPE FOR
THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1914.

This is a day when all the influences should be stimulating and helpful, for, according to astrology, Venus, Uranus and Saturn are all in benefic aspect. Women should benefit, under this configuration. The signs are most promising for whatever concerns them. They should be fortunate in business affairs, and in any activity which brings into play their intuitive and intellectual faculties.

The way is a fortunate one for love affairs. There is a lucky omen for wednesday.

It is an auspicious day for beginning new friendships, especially with persons of opposite sex. The stars are believed to be peculiarly favorable to those who inspire admiration and affection. All social affairs should be successful under the rule of the stars.

As Venus is said to preside over gardens and fountains, outdoor fete shows as most fortunate in their results, bringing together congenial guests.

Hotel keepers, confectioners, managers of restaurants, and all who contribute to public comfort are under a government of the stars said to bring aid.

The signs are promising for those who make collections or send out bills. Business, also, are under a happy omen.

Actors, singers, artists, and all who desire the higher arts should benefit by this rule of Venus, which is supposed to guide persons who have talent.

Whatever contributes to the physical charm of women is held to be of special virtue during this aspect.

It is a fortunate time for beginning travels, especially when business or self-interest is the motive. There is a suggestion of sign for inventions and the summer will reveal many novel ideas practically applied. Aerial navigation will prosper.

There is a prophecy that a western United States senator will be unsuccessful in the autumn election, owing to the work of women who he has antagonized. That is the danger which a great surprise.

Children who irritate it is, have the augury of a happy year. Financial conditions should be favorable.

Travel and change that will bring success are prognosticated. Romance is foreboded for the young, who will become engaged or marry.

Children born on this day have kind stars to guide them. They should be clever, lovable and persevering. These subjects of Taurus are usually conservative, but they are able to see possibilities of gain and to act prudently share more impetuous persons would commit follies.

Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson entertain

An event of Tuesday evening was the dinner given by Mr. H. M. Atkinson at the Drive Hills Golf club in compliment to a party of friends from the north.

The occasion was one of delightful hospitality. Mr. Atkinson's guests included fifty gentlemen. Dinner was followed by a dance, when a number of the season's debutantes joined the party and were received by Mrs. Atkinson.

The ball room was beautifully decorated with palms and growing plants and quantities of pink roses. Mrs. Atkinson wore green with white overalls of black tulle, and Miss Atkinson was beauteously adorned in white and carried pink roses.

Federation of Woman's Clubs in North Carolina

RALEIGH, N. C., May 6.—Representing a membership of 3,253 in eighty-two women's clubs in the state, the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs began its annual convention in Fayetteville last night with a large attendance. The convention will close Friday night.

Miss Adelaide L. Fries of Winston, president of the federation, in the annual address, told of the growth of the organization and its work. Mrs. Percy V. Pennington, president of the national federation, will speak Wednesday night and Mrs. Eugene Hall of Charlotte, spoke Tuesday evening on "The Social Federal Council of the World."

A reception to the federation followed.

If there is no time for the all-over bath, put a tablespoonful of toilet ammonia, perfumed, into a basin of warm water, and sponge off the neck and arms. This must not touch the face as the ammonia will irritate the skin, which is tender there. Then use a small quantity of any pure toilet water, no deodorant, orange flower water or rosewater made hot, and put on the face with a soft rag is likewise bountiful to the skin and restful to the facial nerves.—Copyright 1914, by the Metcure Newspaper Syndicate.

Later it was no uncommon thing for Senator, then Judge O'Gorman, to engage passage for himself, his wife, five or six young O'Gormans and one or two competent nurses. When the party reached the other side a governess was attached and the young folks learned the language and geography of the country while they traveled through it.

Mrs. O'Gorman has three married daughters. One of the sons of Dudley Field Malone, collector of the port in New York.

She is a great believer in higher education for women and has always taken the greatest interest in the studies of her daughters.

She is well read and widely traveled. A fully stocked library is a feature of her home at Cleveland Park, one of the residence sections in the capital.

She cares little for society and takes small part in it outside of a strict observance of the social duties attached to her position.

Later it was no uncommon thing for Senator, then Judge O'Gorman, to engage passage for himself, his wife, five or six young O'Gormans and one or two competent nurses. When the party reached the other side a governess was attached and the young folks learned the language and geography of the country while they traveled through it.

Mrs. O'Gorman has three married daughters. One of the sons of Dudley Field Malone, collector of the port in New York.

She is a great believer in higher education for women and has always taken the greatest interest in the studies of her daughters.

She is well read and widely traveled. A fully stocked library is a feature of her home at Cleveland Park, one of the residence sections in the capital.

She cares little for society and takes small part in it outside of a strict observance of the social duties attached to her position.

Mr. and

McCormick's Lookouts Took First Game From Bill Smith's Crackers

LITTLE PAL---HE'S STILL TRYING TO SEE THE WIDOW

-BY LEO

HOW LOOKOUTS WON

By Innis Brown

We once heard an expression which ran something like this: "The more you see 'em the worse you'll hate 'em." Not very grammatical, but highly expressive and thoroughly applicable to the Merry Marauders led by Manager Moore McCormick.

We entertained a rather unavailing opinion of this bunch of land pirates and slug-sharks, following a recent visit of our Crackers to Chattanooga a short time since. That opinion was sorely aggravated at a little session held at Ponce de Leon Tuesday afternoon. Results, a ball game lost to the invaders by a score of 5 to 2.

Yes sir, it was bad enough for this band of baseball brigands to sally onto home folk in the recent series in Lookoutville, but when they come back with further fanfares and vanquish our home people right here in our own back yard, something must be done. It's all wrong, Herman, it's all wrong.

Our diamond guests arrived in the city Tuesday morning, rode to the park with an air of superb confidence, took their preliminary practice, after a fashion that expressed fully a feeling that they expected to slam the eternal lights out of any resistance that the home people might essay to hurl in their path. Then, to keep up the general tenor of their behavior they walked right in to the first canto and proceeded to do just their very appetizing indicated that they were bent on doing.

Manager Smith sent in Key Perryman for two or three days, and that job Saturday was no task for a sick man or a boy. As evidence of the fact, just listen to what the aliens did before Perry came back to cover. Johnson hit an awfully strong drive to Tommy Long on left, and when Tommy allowed it to carry off his shine to the foul line, Johnson hiked on to second. Mike Ball hit a grounder to Jennings in deep short, which Morley flagged, but could not get to Ebel in time to head off the chief. Jacobson hit one over second, which McConnell hardly manage-

LOOKOUTS HITTING WELL; ARE NOT WORLD-BEATERS

BY INNIS BROWN.

The game at Ponce de Leon Tuesday afternoon afforded local fans their first opportunity to behold the manner of club that Manager Harry McCormick has gathered together. They came along at the box score of that game, and then admit quietly but positively that the Lookouts can hit the ball. They claimed the pitching offered them Tuesday, and they are likely to murder the offerings of many another hurler come the day of October.

However, aside from their ability to hit, there is little to indicate that they are extraordinarily formidable, and it is hardly likely that they can keep up such a batting tirade as was perpetrated in that opening battle. On the other hand, they were getting the breaks in great spots by way of several timely decisions by Dan Pfenninger on balls and strikes. In one case particularly, Dan appeared to be off. In the sixth, when the Crackers appeared set for a batting rally, with the count three and two on Kircher, Dan called George out on a service that looked to be several inches wide of the plate.

However, it was no ten-man victory for the Moosemen. The Crackers, and should have won, but not by as wide margin as they did. In the eighth with one down and men on second and third, Graft tore in and speared Holland's drive on a desperate one, and whipped to Ebel to catch Kircher. The toss was made, and the Chief flagged it with his bare hook, completing a play that would have fallen on the one end or the other four times out of five.

Hack Ebel was also the victim of at least two tough breaks on his hitting. In the seventh, he was the victim to right that made a target of McCormick without the Moose's moving from his tracks. Again in the ninth, he all but knocked Flick over with a line drive directly at that gentleman. Had either of these punches been a few feet either side, they would have been safe, and the first would have gone for at least two bags. The said that Dan Fortune smiles on the hustler. If such be the case, the Lookouts are the game who wrote that line.

The game served to stir up more of the genuine dyed-in-the-scarlet line of rooting that has been crowded into the eight preceding games combined. There are lots more popular events for Atlanta sport fans than the spectacle of a Chattanooga ball team trimming the home folk, and every time opportunity was afforded, the crowd on hand emitted loud and noisy expressions of rejoicing and delight. And in spite of the fact that the Moosemen got home three laps ahead of the Crackers, there were several such opportunities.

The second game of the series will be played this afternoon. The Crackers left the grounds as mad as a bunch of

All Now Ready For Hill Climb

Arrangements Made for Timing Events Electrically. Officers for Meet Named

The annual hill climb of the Atlanta Auto and Accessory Association, Saturday, will be timed by electricity, assuring absolute accuracy to the fifth of a second. E. J. Rian, who for some years has timed and assisted in timing the Atlanta speedway races, the Savannah grand prize, and the Vanderbilt cup, will operate the electric timing apparatus next Saturday at the Stewart avenue hill climb. R. N. Reed will be the head timer, and in addition to Mr. Rian will have as assistants Joe Brown Connally, F. C. Steinhauser, Ed L. Wight, Jr., and A. C. Mezell. A telephone system will be installed by the Atlanta Telephone company and will be used to facilitate the timing in particular and the better to assist the starters, and other officials in general.

Everything is in readiness for what will be the biggest hill climb ever pulled off by this association, and the practice is in full swing every day from 9 to 11 a. m.
